Elan Energy Consulting is the leading authority on the Benelux wholesale power market. We have been deeply involved in all of the key processes of liberalisation, ranging from privatisation through to the resolution of stranded costs allocation and concerns of excessive market power. The selection of Elan Energy Consulting as Market Advisor for two IPP projects in the Dutch power market is a clear recognition of our knowledge and expertise.

The rapidly changing and developing power markets in the Benelux require close monitoring and regular analysis. At Elan we continue to invest in high quality products in this area, to ensure that our clients will benefit from our expertise and obtain deep insights into the Benelux power markets.
